THE HAUNTED HONEYMOON

By Hal E. Roach

FEB - 9 1925

A happy bride and bridegroom, a rejected suitor - a substituted dog license for the marriage license and then when the rejected suitor announces the marriage NOT legal, the chase after the couple to right the wrong. Meanwhile the happy pair, compelled to seek quarters not arranged for, find themselves in a haunted house. Here occur a number of laughable situations, added to by the flash of lightning and the booming of thunder. Finally located by the anxious parents the affair is straightened out and the lovers are left blissfully alone.
